The Peanut 1960 Presents

SUFFOLK
HIGH SCHOOL
Suffolk, Virginia

Co-Editors:

Betty Stewart Pam Miltier

Foreword

On the cover of this, the 1960 Peanut, is the shield from the seal of Suffolk High School. There are two symbols on this shield; the lamp of learning and the crown of leadership. We san Look both with pride on these symbols which have guided us through our years of high school. They will ever remind us of the part we have play a proper light School, of all that Suffolk High stands for, all that she means to us, and all that she has given us.

We have chosen the theme "Our Year" for the 1960 Peanut. Since we are seniors and this is our last year at Suffolk High School, we feel there is reason for 1960 to be called "Our Year". Between the covers of this Peanut we wish to give you something to remember us by, to help you recall, as we will, days of laughter, learning, and friendship.

Although we consider this "Our Year", there will be many more years at Sutfolk High School. Soon there will come a time when you, foo, will have a year to call your own.

SENIORS

As we walked up the steps of Suffolk High School in the fall of '59, graduation seemed a distant dream of the future; but old Papa Time has been shifting that hourglass with amazing rapidity, for the time has finally come when we can feel those sheepskins almost within our grasps.

Spring always comes, even if she is a bit slow at times, and with it a senior's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of graduation. High School is but the beginning of knowledge. Our school gave of herself to us, and her greatest gift was to teach us to love learning. We had but to accept. For four years we looked forward to graduation, and now we have reached its gate. We owe so much to our faculty, to our administration, and to our fellow students.

We are ready to leave, but when we allow our minds to ramble over the dances, the parties, the assemblies, the mischief, the moments of inspiration, the million and one private memories that are the precious possessions of each individual—we know that we will keep these things for the proud vision of the future.
